

Volunteer Nikki Guldager from Washington state (KE 7/94)

This year's volunteers assisted in a variety of biological, operational, and maintenance projects which are further discussed in the appropriate sections of this report. In addition to these full-time summer volunteers, numerous incidental volunteers donated an additional 682 hours towards our biological, maintenance, public use, and administration programs. We could not conduct our programs without the assistants of our dedicated volunteer work force.