

Alaska LNG Project Updates -- compiled by Larry Persily

Alaska LNG Project Updates are compiled by Larry Persily, Special Assistant - Oil and Gas, for the Kenai Peninsula Borough Mayor's Office.

Alaska LNG Project Updates are also available at the Kenai Borough Mayor's Office website at: <http://www.kpb.us/mayor/lng-project/lng-project-updates>.

Link to the full catalog record for the entire series: catalog record.

These items are also searchable in The Pipe Files by individual title. To obtain a list of all updates in the catalog, search by the series "Alaska LNG Project Updates".

Return to ARLIS

Publication Date	Title
26 April 2016	Alaska LNG outlines issues for next round of resource reports
16 March 2016	'Homeless LNG' likely to keep market oversupplied this decade
9 March 2016	Next round of LNG project reports to FERC expected to start late spring
19 February 2016	Weak market could delay Alaska LNG project
26 December 2015	Alaska LNG working to answer agencies' questions
14 December 2015	Public submits wide-ranging comments on Alaska LNG project to FERC
26 October 2015	Alaska LNG project shares information on possible highway relocation
22 October 2015	FERC schedules 12 hearings statewide on LNG project
13 October 2015	FERC has full workload with LNG export projects
08 October 2015	FERC asks public what should be covered in Alaska LNG review
07 October 2015	Hard times, hard decisions for LNG projects
16 September 2015	LNG plant construction a huge undertaking
26 August 2015	Cook inlet pipeline crossing is about making the best choices
07 July 2015	Pipeline building a choreography of coordinated steps
09 June 2015	Tokyo Gas sees Alaska in potential LNG supply mix
29 May 2015	Energy Department approves Alaska LNG exports
26 May 2015	Alaska LNG reviews pipeline route with government agencies