P R O C E E D I N G S

(On Record at 7:35 a.m., August 13, 1993).

MR. BARTON: This is the executive session of the Trustee Council to conduct further interviews with the five finalists for the position of executive director.

MR. PENNOYER: I assume the remarks you just made for the opening of this transcript ...

MR. BARTON: That's correct. I don't know if you recorded my earlier remarks?

THE CLERK: No, I didn't record the earlier ones.

MR. PENNOYER: Thank you.

MR. BARTON: All right. We'll do that then. Now you interrupted my train of thought.

MR. PENNOYER: I'm sorry.

MR. BARTON: We have present all members of the Trustee Council. At this point, we'll go into executive session.

R E C E S S

7:38 a.m. - 11:41 a.m.

MR. BARTON: We're back on the record. The Trustee Council has finished its executive session. We interviewed five of the finalists for executive director position. The Chair will entertain a motion to adjourn.

MR. PENNOYER: So moved.

MR. COLE: I'll second that.

(The Trustee Council adjourned at 11:43 a.m.)
