7835 - 1	01/28/04	HRH Order #364 that this court concludes that a $5 Billion punitive damages award was justified by the facts of the case and is not grossly excessive so as to deprive Exxon of fair notice--its right to due process. This conclusion is based on the court's findings as stated. The court of appeals did not just remand this case for application of BMW, Cooper Industries, and State Farm. It means resolving the conflict between its conclusion and the direction of the court of appeals. Exxon' motion for reduction or remittitur of the punitive damages award is granted. The sum of $500 million of the $5 billion jury award is remitted and therefore the punitive damages award in this case is reduced to $4.5 billion. The clerk shall enter an amended partial judgment accordingly. All plfs' lead counsel's mot for a Rule 54(b) determination as to the punitive damages judgment is reinstated as is

		Exxon's opposition to the mot. The court concludes there is no just reason to delay entry of final judgment. The court's judgment as to the $4.5 billion punitive damages award is deemed final for purposes of Rule 54(b) FRCP. In the alternative the court concludes that the interlocutory appeal under 28 U.S.C. § 1292(b) is appropriate. All plfs' lead counsel's mot for a Rule 54(b) finality determination or, in the alternative, an interlocutory appeal, is granted. Court granted motion (2d renewed) for reduction or remittitur of punitive damages award (7753-1). Order #358 at docket 7835 is vacated. Exxon's second renewed mot for reduction of punitive damages at dkt 7487 is denied as moot. cc: cns1
7836 -	1 01/28/04	HRH Amended Partial Judgment that punitive damages are awarded for the plaintiffs and against the defendants Exxon Mobile Corporation (D-1) and Exxon Shipping Company (D-2), jointly and severally, in the amount of $4.5 billion. Interest on the reduced award of punitive damages shall accrue from 9/24/06, in accordance with 28:1961. cc: cns1, O&J 11463, Redistributed 2/12/04 w/Costs Taxed
7837 -	1 01/29/04	HRH Order re: Class Counsel's Renewed Motion for Award of Attorney fees & costs at dkt 7650. The court finds that a blended fee award of 22.4% of the net class recovery is reasonable compensation for Class Counsel. The court rejects Exxon's unsupported contention that a cap be imposed on plf' costs and expenses. It is undisputed that the Class Counsel are entitled to recover their reasonable costs and expenses of litigation from the common fund. At this point the court holds only that plaintiffs are entitled to recover costs reasonably incurred in the prosecution of this litigation. The court will make a determination as to what costs were reasonably incurred upon further application of Class Counsel. Class Counsel will be expected to have documented and audited the costs requested as was done with the fee application. As long as Class Counsel's requested costs do not exceed $22 million, no further notice to the class will be required. The court reserves ruling on whether class notice will be required should the requested unreimbursed costs exceed $22 million. A blended fee for all Plaintiffs' Class Counsel of 22.4% of the net class recovery is reasonable and shall be comprised as stated. Plaintiffs are entitled to recover costs reasonably incurred in the prosecution of this litigation. The Court will make a determination as to what costs were reasonably incurred upon further application of Class Counsel. The court retains jurisdiction over the matter of costs and attorney fees for purposes of taking up the following: 1. To determine Class Counsel's recoverable costs, and 2. To reevaluate Class Counsel's attorney fees if requested by the to do so after a further appeal. cc: cns1
