

Personal communications related to the TERRESTRIAL SECTION of the Non-Susitna Hydro Alternatives Environmental Analysis

Person Contacted: Dennis Money, Endangered Species Biologist
US Fish and Wildlife Service
Anchorage, AK.

Contacted By: Charles Elliott in a phone call on July 25, 1984.

Subject: Confirmation of the status of the Tule's white-fronted goose.

Comments: The Tule's white-fronted goose was proposed for threatened or endangered status in 1981. According to the Dec. 30, 1982 Review of Candidates list for Threatened and Endangered Species, the goose is listed in category 3C-- which means the taxa was more abundant than originally thought when first recommended for consideration and is not considered threatened or endangered.
