interview. Tape # 80-16.*

Topkok Roadhouse is nationally significant because of its association with the Iditarod National Historic Trail. The roadhouse was located at the mouth of Topkok River on the north shores of Norton Sound, 15 miles east of Solomon. Inspection of the reported roadhouse location revealed foundation ruins. Two small shelter cabins were inventoried at the site and appear to have been used primary as a fish camp. Reported owner is Jim Foster of Foster Air Service in Nome.
